HONORANDS OF THE 2005 COMMENCEMENT

ELLEN BAXTER '05
DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

A 1994 recipient of Bowdoin's Common Good Award, Ellen Baxter has been a tireless advo-

ALAN LIGHTMAN
DOCTOR OF LETTERS

A 1970 Princeton graduate with a Ph.D. in theoretical physics from the California Institute of Technology, Alan Lightman is a scientist and writer whose work enriches both science and literature. Throughout his early career at Cornell and Harvard, and as a research scientist at the Harvard-Smithsonian Center for Astrophysics, Lightman wrote poetry, fiction, reviews, and essays about science and the human side of science. He served as professor of science and writing and senior lecturer in physics at M.I.T., where he headed the Program in Writing and Humanistic Studies and helped to create the communication requirement for M.I.T. students. His books include On the Edge of Reason, Eight Hours of Shame, God Be With Me, The Dog Days, and Requiem. Lightman is the recipient of the Distinguished Arts and Humanities Medal for Literature (Germantown Arts Alliance), the Gyorgy Kepes Prize in the Arts (M.I.T. Council for the Arts), and the Andrew Gemant Award of the American Institute of Physics (for linking science and the humanities). Lightman's scientific research has appeared in journals of physics and astrophysics and has earned him membership in the American Physical Society and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. He is a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and was named a Literary Light of the Boston Public Library in 1995.

FREDERICK G. P. THORNE
DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

Elected an Overseer of the College in 1972, Fred Thorne continued his record of leadership in the College's governance as a Trustee (beginning in 1982), as chair of the Board of Trustees from 1996 to 1999, and again as a Trustee until he was elected emeritus in 2003. Thorne has also generously volunteered his time and energy to Bowdoin as a class agent, a Bowdoin Club president, a regional chair for two prior capital campaigns, and as chair of the New Century Capital Campaign. He has a long and distinguished record in the investment business at State Street Bank, John P. Chase, Inc. of Boston (later Phoenix Investment Counsel of Boston, Inc.), and Harbor Capital Management. He remains a financial consultant in his retirement, and is a valued member of a number of corporate and philanthropic boards.

FREDERICK WISEMAN
DOCTOR OF FINE ARTS

Documentary filmmaker Frederick Wiseman made his first film, Film, Film, more than 35 years ago while he was a law professor. That film, which showed the brutality of mental health care of the criminally insane in a Massachusetts asylum, shocked audiences, and Massachusetts officials banned the film from public viewing for 25 years. Wiseman's documentary films number more than 30, including High School; La a d Ode (Emmy Award for Best News Documentary in 1969); ial (Emmy Award for best documentary direction in 1970); J e l; Ibl; Bel; and D e t Me C. He is the recipient of a MacArthur Prize (1982-1987), a Peabody award in 1991, three Emmy Awards, a Columbia DuPont Award, and the Irene Diamond Award for Lifetime Achievement by Human Rights Watch. A Williams College graduate with a law degree from Yale University, he is an Honorary Member of the American Academy of Arts and Letters and a Fellow at the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

RAISE SONGS TO BOWDOIN

Words by K.C.M. Sills, Class of 1901

New Lyrics by Anthony Antolini '63

Music by C.T. Burnett

Arr. by Thornton W. Allen

Raise songs to Bowdoin, praise her fame,
And sound abroad her glorious name;
To Bowdoin, Bowdoin lift your song,
And may the music echo long
O'er whispering pines and campus fair
With sturdy might filling the air.
Bowdoin, from birth, our nurturer and friend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.

While now amid thy halls we stay
And breathe thy spirit day by day,
Oh may we thus full worthy be
To march in that proud company
Of poets, leaders and each one
Who brings thee fame by deeds well done.
Bowdoin, from birth, our nurturer and friend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.
