DEGREES

This ancient formula is used by the President in conferring degrees:

The Latin text quoted on the preceding page has introduced Bowdoin's Commencement Program since August 21, 1822. The names of the 24 graduates of the Class of 1822 were, for the most part, also translated into Latin for the program. In the early years of the College, each graduating senior was required to deliver a Commencement "part," an oration on ancient or modern topics, which was frequently given in one of the classical languages, Latin, Greek, or Hebrew. The traditional Latin oration was given in 1955, but the tradition of Latin survives in the language used to dedicate the Commencement Exercises and to confer the bachelor of arts degree. The translation below was provided by Barbara Weiden Boyd, Henry Winkley Professor of Latin and Greek.

May it be good, felicitous, and well-omened:*

To Paul LePage, esteemed Governor;
to the Representatives and Senators who personally preside over the arts and letters for the State of Maine;
and to the honorable and respected Trustees of Bowdoin College;
to Barry Mills, distinguished President;
to the entire academic senate; to the venerable religious leaders;
in short, to all patrons of the human race everywhere,
the young people hereby initiated into the arts and letters
most humbly dedicate these exercises.

Candidati Baccalaurei, assurgite.

Vir honorande, hosce iuvenes, quos censeo idoneos primum gradum in artibus, nunc tibi o ero, ut a te instructus, eos ad istum admittam. Placetne? (Placet.)

Pro auctoritate mihi commissa, admitto vos ad primum gradum in artibus, et dono et concedo omnia iura, privilegia, honores et dignitates, ad gradum istum pertinentia.

Ubi o iuratus signee. Iuramentum hasce membranas litteris scriptas accipite.

Candidates for the Baccalaureate degrees will rise.

(To the Chair of the Board of Trustees)

Honored sir, these young people whom I deem worthy of the first degree in Arts, I now present to you, that, if you so direct, I may admit them to that degree. Is such your will? (It is.)

(To the Candidates)

By virtue of the authority vested in me, I now admit you to the first degree in Arts and do grant and confer upon you all the rights, privileges, honors, and dignities pertaining to that degree.

In witness whereof, receive these diplomas.

NOTE: The Baccalaureate degrees are awarded individually. The graduating class requests that there be no applause until the degree is conferred.

Held in a gathering of Bowdoin College, in Brunswick, in the State of Maine, on the eighth day before the Kalends of June, in the 2013th year of our well-being and in the 237th year of the authority of the United States of America.

At the Commencement Exercises, Bowdoin displays the Coats of Arms of the United States of America, the State of Maine, and the home or dual-citizenship countries or territories of graduating students—in 2013, Australia, Austria, Bulgaria, Cameroon, Canada, Colombia, Costa Rica, Ecuador, France, Germany, Hong Kong, India, Ireland, Italy, Jamaica, Japan, Latvia, Malaysia, Mexico, New Zealand, Pakistan, Panama, People's Republic of China, Puerto Rico, Republic of Korea, Russia, Singapore, Sweden, Switzerland, Thailand, United Kingdom.

* An ancient Roman formula used at the outset of a ritual to ensure its success.

HONORANDS OF THE COMMENCEMENT

MADELEINE K. ALBRIGHT, Doctor of Laws (L.L.D.)

ROSE MARIE BRAVO, Doctor of Humane Letters (L.H.D.)

Rose Marie Bravo, former CEO and vice chairman of Burberry Group Plc., has established a record of outstanding leadership in the retail industry. Born in the Bronx, she graduated from the Bronx High School of Science and then from Fordham University. She began her career as a buyer for Abraham and Strauss in 1971 and later became chair and CEO of the I. Magnin Specialty Division of R. H. Macy. She was president of Saks Fifth Avenue from 1992 to 1997, and then took on the challenge of reforming the British fashion brand Burberry as its CEO. Because of her extraordinary record of accomplishment in the retail industry, her advice and insights on effective leadership in a changing business world are in great demand. She is a member of the boards of directors of Tiffany & Co., Estée Lauder Companies, and Williams-Sonoma. She was named the most powerful woman in fashion by Time magazine in 2004 and was included in the Forbes list of "The 100 Most Powerful Women in the World" in 2005.

PHILIP W. CONKLING, Doctor of Science (Sc.D.)

Philip Conkling is the founder and president of the Island Institute in Rockland, Maine. He graduated from Harvard University in 1970 and, after teaching high school in California and working at seasonal jobs in Maine, earned a master's degree from Yale's School of Forestry and Environmental Studies. Conkling is the publisher of The Working Waterfront, an online and print newspaper that focuses on policy issues and current research that affect coastal communities, and is the lead editor of Island Journal, an annual magazine that explores island life through articles, essays, photographs, art, and poetry. Conkling is the author of numerous articles and author and editor of several books, including

The Departments of Art, Biology, Chemistry, Computer Science, Earth and Oceanographic Science, English, History, Psychology, Romance Languages, and Sociology and Anthropology, and the Biochemistry, Environmental Studies, Latin American Studies, and Neuroscience Programs award only one level of departmental honors. Other departments award Highest Honors, High Honors, and Honors, and the recipients are so designated. Honors project titles below are in Bowdoin style. Official titles of record are online at Hawthorne-Longfellow Library.

The formal academic attire that distinguishes faculty and graduates at academic ceremonies is a symbol at once vertical and horizontal. It stretches back into history, to the roots of academic institutions, while at the same time it forms a bond of union among contemporary academic scholars.

The gown, cap, and hood, which would certainly seem quaint today if worn on our city streets, were originally the ordinary apparel of our medieval ancestors. The gowns varied in elegance according to the rank and wealth of the owners, and the hood had the practical function of being pulled over the head for warmth.

Many of the medieval universities had strict rules on the subject; at Oxford, for example, the master of arts had to swear that he owned the dress prescribed for his degree and that he would wear it on all proper occasions. Undergraduates were required to wear their gowns whenever they appeared in the public street. After the sixteenth century in Europe different styles prevailed, but the older style was retained for certain legal, official, clerical, and, especially, academic uses.

In America the gown has been used to some extent since colonial times. It was only in the late nineteenth century, however, that widespread interest—sparked

RAISE SONGS TO BOWDOIN

Words by K. C. M. Sills, Class of 1901

New Lyrics by Anthony Antolini '63

Music by C. T. Burnett

Arranged by Thornton W. Allen

Raise songs to Bowdoin, praise her fame,
And sound abroad her glorious name;
To Bowdoin, Bowdoin li€ your song,
And may the music echo long
O'er whispering pines and campus fair
With sturdy might lling the air.
Bowdoin, om birth, our nurturer and iend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.

While now amid thy halls we stay
And breathe thy spirit day by day,
Oh may we thus full worthy be
To march in that proud company
Of poets, leaders and each one
Who brings thee fame by deeds well done.
Bowdoin, om birth, our nurturer and iend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.
