The Latin text quoted on the preceding page has introduced Bowdoin's Commencement Program since August 21, 1822. The names of the twenty-four graduates of the Class of 1822 were, for the most part, also translated into Latin for the program. In the early years of the College, each graduating senior was required to deliver a Commencement "part," an oration on ancient or modern topics, which was frequently given in one of the classical languages, Latin, Greek, or Hebrew. The final Latin oration was given in 1893, but the tradition of Latin survives in the language used to dedicate the Commencement Exercises and to confer the bachelor of arts degree. The translation below was provided by Associate Professor of Classics on the Henry Johnson Professorship Fund and Associate Curator for the Ancient Collection in the Museum of Art Jim Higginbotham.

May it be good, felicitous, and well-omened:*
To Janet Mills, esteemed Governor; to the Representatives and Senators who personally preside over the arts and letters for the State of Maine;
and to the honorable and respected Trustees of Bowdoin College;
to Clayton Rose, distinguished President;
to the entire academic senate; to the venerable religious leaders;
in short, to all patrons of the human race everywhere,
the young people hereby initiated into the arts and letters
most humbly dedicate these exercises.

Held in a gathering of Bowdoin College, in Brunswick, in the State of Maine, on the sixth day before the Kalends of June, in the 2023rd year of our well-being and in the 247th year of the authority of the United States of America.

* An ancient Roman formula used at the outset of a ritual to ensure its success.

DEGREES

This ancient formula is used by the President in conferring degrees:

Vir honorandus, hosce iuvenes, quos censeo idoneos primum ad gradum in artibus, nunc tibi o ero, ut a te instructus, eos ad gradum istum admittam. Placetne? (Placet.)

Pro auctoritate mihi commissa, admitto vos ad primum gradum in artibus, et dono et concedo omnia iura, privilegia, honores atque dignitates, ad gradum istum pertinentia.

In cuius testimonium hasce membranas litteris scriptas accipite.

Candidates for the Baccalaureate degrees will rise.

(To the Chair of the Board of Trustees)
Honored sir, these young people whom I deem worthy of the first degree in Arts, I now present to you, that, if you so direct, I may admit them to that degree. Is such your will? (It is.)

(To the Candidates)
By virtue of the authority vested in me, I now admit you to the first degree in Arts and do grant and confer upon you all the rights, privileges, honors, and dignities pertaining to that degree.

In witness whereof, receive these diplomas.

NOTE: The Baccalaureate degrees are awarded individually, and the graduating class requests that there be no applause until the last degree is conferred.

HONORANDS OF THE 2023 COMMENCEMENT

STEPHEN F. GORMLEY '72, P'06, P'09, P'11, *Doctor of Humane Letters (LHD)

---

Stephen F. Gormley '72, P'06, P'09, P'11, a former chair of the board of trustees (2010–2013) and a Bowdoin parent three times over, was elected to the board in 2001 and served until 2021. Throughout his decades of service to the College, he chaired the Financial Planning Committee and served on the Admissions and Financial Aid, Audit, Governance, Development and College Relations, Facilities and Properties, Gift Acceptance, Information Technology Advisory, Investment, Resources, and Student Affairs Committees. He was also a member of the Campaign Planning and Steering Committees for the Bowdoin Campaign and has chaired his Reunion Gift Committee. In 2009, he established the Gormley Career Services Endowment to support the operations of the College's Career Service Center (now Career Exploration and Development, or CXD). In 1998, Gormley established the Gene Lil Scholarship Fund, which gave preference to students from Aroostook County and then elsewhere in Maine. He has been a primary supporter of the Aroostook County Scholarship Fund, which was established by various donors during the New Century Campaign. Graduating from Bowdoin with a government major, Gormley began a career in commercial lending at First National Bank of Boston, later leaving to attend the Columbia University School of Business, where he earned his MBA. Gormley would join and later become partner at TA Associates in Boston, a small but leading firm in the early days of venture capital, where he focused on the media and telecommunications industries. He and three other partners left in 1986 to form Media Communications Partners, a new private equity firm focused exclusively on media and telecommunications. In 1999, Gormley cofounded Great Hill Partners, a private equity firm focused on business services with recurring revenue streams, digital media, and e-commerce. Gormley retired in 2011; he and his wife, Cindy, live in Marion, Massachusetts, and have three daughters, Margaret Donahue '06, Kate Saeki '09, and Caroline Nebergall '11, and seven grandchildren.

NAVARANA K'AVIGAK' SØRENSEN, *Doctor of Humane Letters (LHD)

Navarana K'avigak' Sørensen has spent decades providing cultural expertise to researchers, authors, filmmakers, and politicians seeking to acquaint themselves with Inuit culture. She was born in Uummannaq (Thule), in northwest Greenland, to a family that is inextricably linked to the College. Sørensen's great uncle Odaq was the most accomplished of the four Inuit who helped Robert Peary and Matthew Henson travel to and from the North Pole safely, and her parents, K'avigak' and Amaunalik, worked with Donald MacMillan on his 1923–1924 expedition and maintained a lifelong friendship with him. Sørensen's familial connections have allowed her to share Inuit perspectives and information about Inuit contributions to northern exploration. She has lent her expertise and acted as cultural liaison to institutions throughout the world, including Bowdoin's Peary-MacMillan Arctic Museum, where she provided insights into Inuit views and served as facilitator, interpreter, transcriber, and translator for interviews with Inuit elders, generously allowing the College to gain access to their perspectives and knowledge. She has served as curator of the Qaanaq Museum in Northwest Greenland and as a cultural educator for Adventure Canada. Along with director Stephen A. Smith, Sørensen was instrumental in the making of the acclaimed 2012 film Vanishing Point, which chronicled life in the Arctic for two remote communities linked by a migration from Baffin Island to Greenland. Now retired, Sørensen continues to be a collaborator and will also be part of a proposed project to work with MacMillan's journals and photographs to document the life histories of the Inughuit men and women he worked with, including her parents, to provide the often-excluded Inuit perspective.

ROBERT F. WHITE '77, P'15, *Doctor of Humane Letters (LHD)

Robert F. White '77, P'15, former chair of the board of trustees (2019–2022) and a Bowdoin parent, has provided nearly thirty years of service to the College. Elected to the Bowdoin College Board of Overseers in 1993, White became a trustee of the College in 1996 when Bowdoin adopted a unicameral form of governance. He has served on numerous trustee committees and more recently served on the Governance, Investment, and Beyond Bowdoin Committees. He previously chaired the Development and College Relations Committee (1996–1999). White also served as a member of his 40th Reunion Committee (2016–2017) and as a member of the past two Presidential Search Committees (2000–2001 and 2014–2015). In 2004–2009, White chaired Bowdoin's Campaign Planning Committee and, with trustee emerita Deborah Barker '80, P'16, he cochaired the Campaign Steering Committee for "The Bowdoin Campaign," which exceeded its goal of $250 million by raising $293 million. In addition to his service to Bowdoin, White has served on the Board of Dean's Advisors at Harvard Business School and on the Board of Governors at the London Business School. White began his career at Price Waterhouse & Co., where he obtained a CPA. In 1982, he earned an MBA at Harvard Business School and joined Bain & Company consulting. In 1984, White was a founding member of Bain Capital, where he served for twenty years as a managing director and where he is currently a special limited partner. In 2003, the other managing directors of Bain

ACADEMIC APPAREL

The formal academic attire that distinguishes faculty and graduates at academic ceremonies is a symbol at once vertical and horizontal. It stretches back into history, to the roots of academic institutions, while at the same time it forms a bond of union among contemporary academic scholars.

The gown, cap, and hood, which would certainly seem quaint today if worn on our city streets, were originally the ordinary apparel of our medieval ancestors. The gowns varied in elegance according to the rank and wealth of the owners, and the hood had the practical function of being pulled over the head for warmth. Many of the medieval universities had strict rules on the subject; at Oxford, for example, the master of arts had to swear that he owned the dress prescribed for his degree and that he would wear it on all proper occasions. Undergraduates were required to wear their

RAISE SONGS TO BOWDOIN

Words by K. C. M. Silks, Class of 1901

New Lyrics by Anthony Antolini '63

Music by C. T. Burnett

Arranged by Thornton W. Allen

Raise songs to Bowdoin, praise her fame,
And sound abroad her glorious name;
To Bowdoin, Bowdoin li your song,
And may the music echo long
O'er whispering pines and campus fair
With sturdy might filling the air.
Bowdoin, om birth, our nurturer and iend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.

While now amid thy halls we stay
And breathe thy spirit day by day,
Oh may we thus full worthy be
To march in that proud company
Of poets, leaders and each one
Who brings thee fame by deeds well done.
Bowdoin, om birth, our nurturer and iend
To thee we pledge our love again, again.
