Pre-Incident Assault Indicators

All people are born with the "Fight or Flight" response. We all have had "hunches" or "gut feelings" about someone or a situation before. Those little hairs that stand up on the back of your neck is your testing: you that something isn't right and you need to respond to that.

There is a greater than 95% chance that your instimulation about a person or situation, formed in the first 3 to 5 seconds, is correct.

Listen to and trustyour inner voice and respond to it.

- Rely on your intuition. If it doesn't feel right...it's probably not right.
- Move beyond denial so that your intuition works for you.
- Be constantly aware of your surroundings.

Personal Safety

1

Stay alert! Radiate the message that you are calm, confident, and know where you are going.

- Always use crosswalkend, if provided, use pedestriænctivated crosswalk warning devices. Do not assume that drivers see you. Before crossing make eye contact with approaching drivers and wait for them to stop for you.
  - 8 Consider carryingepper spray, a whistle, or alarm. Some phone apps offer personal alarms.

If you live off camps, familiarize yourself with Brunswick's disorderly house ordinancentlage invoked with complaints of neighborhood disturbances.
