

Bowdoin Dining Service

Policy/Procedure:

Many student groups request space in the dining halls for table tents or other marketing materials. Although this can be an effective way to communicate with students, this policy is intended to protect our customers' rights to an enjoyable meal, keep the dining hall tables from becoming cluttered with paper and not create additional work for dining staff.

-

-

-

-

-