

This summer I was awarded a Rusack Coastal Studies Fellowship to continue my research on the interactions between eelgrass and farmed oysters. I began this work in the Summer of 2021 and continued it as an Honors Project during the 2021-2022 academic year. The central focus of my research is max0.000006% Tmehe 2021